

PRESS RELEASE

PADOVAN LAW FIRM WITH SALINI IMPREGILO FOR THE
NEW ENI HEADQUARTERS IN SAN DONATO MILANESE

Milan, August 2, 2017 – Marco Padovan, assisted by Michele Bonomini and Monica Selvini, of Studio Legale Padovan, assisted SALINI IMPREGILO S.p.A. in the negotiation and execution, in a joint venture with Lamaro Appalti S.p.A. of Rome, of the turnkey contract for the construction of the new ENI headquarters in San Donato Milanese, for an amount of 171 million euros. It is one of the most prominent projects of civil construction to be carried out in Italy in the forthcoming years.

Mr. Padovan said: “I am very pleased with the conclusion of this contract that entitles our client Salini Impregilo to carry out a project of such prominence. A special thanks to the colleagues who handled the negotiations during these months confirming our outstanding expertise on private and public work contract”.

---

About Padovan Law Firm

Studio Legale Padovan was established in 2002 in Milan by Marco Padovan. We deal mainly with contract law, commercial law, compliance and company law.

Besides the Real estate & Construction team's activity, which has important public and private works contracts operations and major international infrastructural projects, the Firm is also marked for its expertise in international economic sanctions and export control of certain goods that are deemed strategic, as well as in M&A and commercial law.

For further information, please contact:

Giusi Merola
Padovan Law Firm
Tel. 024814994
gmerola@studiopadovan.com